1. The total number of personnel to be dismissed in industry and state undertakings is put at 750,000.
2. Further details of such dismissals are as follows:
 - a. Mátyás Rákosi Engineering Works: 25% including manual workers. A committee of three is dealing with the dismissals. 35% of the salaries and wages saved is to go to those of the remaining personnel who undertake the work of the dismissed, and 10% to the members of the committee.
 - b. Ministry of Heavy Industry: 500 of the 1,500 employees were to be dismissed by October 1954 (these dismissals have already taken place). Another 500 are to be dismissed in January 1955, thus leaving only one-third of the original number.
 - c. Ganz Railroad Car Factory: 350 office employees dismissed have been given a choice of three jobs elsewhere: (1) Issuing new identity cards at Ministry of Interior; (2) Employment in the Cogwheel Factory;¹ (3) Employment at the automobile repair factory at Gödöllő² (Budapest office).
3. One of the Government's objects is considered to be the resettling in countryside of about 100,000 persons who have been streaming to industrial centers during the last few years.
